

YEAR 2020/2021

Even though MCO still on and movement of the students is quite restricted, however the student managed to complete the course and fabricated a spring plunger as their mini project (Figure below). For the main project, the students need to design conceptually the bending die, since no fabrication involve, they are requested to produce animation for their project.

Fabricated plunger